

biofuel (n.)	A fuel made from living matter such as plants or agricultural waste.
climate (n.)	The general weather conditions of an area or region including rain, sunshine, wind, temperature, air pressure and cloudiness.
frequently (adv.)	Often, many times, at short intervals.
humid (adj.)	Containing a high amount of water vapor, moist.
ingredient (n.)	Any one of the things mixed together to form a dish or other combination.
oil palm tree (n.)	A tree from West Africa, which grows in tropical climates and produces fruit which can be turned into many things.
plantation (n.)	A large farm, especially in a tropical or semitropical country, on which crops have been planted, frequently the work is done by workers who live on the plantation.
produce (v.)	To make or manufacture.
rainforest (n.)	Usually a tropical forest with dense evergreen growth and high yearly rainfall.
researcher (n.)	A person who verifies or discovers information, a person who carries out academic or scientific research.
room temperature (n.)	A comfortable indoor air temperature, generally 70 degrees Fahrenheit or 21 degrees Celsius.